OneSumX FCC for Anti-Money Laundering

Due to sharp increases in regulatory enforcement today, including cease-and-desist orders and record fines, it is now a top priority for your financial organization to comply with regulations like the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA), the USA PATRIOT Act, the international standards defined by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) and the local regulations defined in each and every country in which you operate. Without a comprehensive BSA/AML program, you face the risk of:

- Costly fines that directly impact your bottom line
- Legal battles that absorb critical financial and human resources
- The ongoing impact of declining share value
- Reputational damage from which it may be difficult to recover

In addition, the increasing sophistication of money launderers and government regulators demands a more comprehensive response to avoid exposure. If your anti-money laundering program still follows manual processes, you face the risk of rendering it inefficient, inaccurate and ineffective. It is, therefore, necessary for you to plan for a BSA/AML strategy to protect your institution.

To confidently and proactively address the challenge, institutions now require a more holistic risk-based approach to their BSA/AML compliance program commensurate with regulators' expectations.
