ROTH IRA UPDATES

(Custodial—includes Self-Direction & Trust)

This document provides a detailed summary of compliance changes to Wolters Kluwer ROTH IRA documents.

Summary of Significant IRA Changes From 2002-2010

In 2010, the IRS released Revenue Procedure 2010-48 in which it identified 17 statutory changes relating to the qualification of IRAs that became effective after the last mandatory amendments were announced in 2002.

Many of those changes are still very relevant today including changes under:

1. The Tax Increase Prevention and Reconciliation Act of 2005 (“TIPRA”);
2. Section 2 of the Heroes Earned Retirement Opportunities Act (“HERO Act”);
3. The Pension Protection Act of 2006 (“PPA”); and
4. The Heroes Earnings Assistance and Relief Act of 2008 (“HEART Act”)

Note that the IRS listed five separate changes under the PPA, four of which still have significant relevance. Similarly, the IRS listed three separate changes under the HEART ACT and all of those changes remain relevant today.

Detailed changes from 2011 to today

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Removed the paragraph under Catch-Up Contributions that discussed additional IRA contributions of up to $3,000 per year for individuals participating in a 401(k) plan of a bankrupt employer since it is no longer applicable.
- Added the 2011 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.
- Removed the conversion eligibility requirements under Traditional IRA to Roth IRA Conversions since they are no longer applicable after 12/31/2009.
- Removed the Rollover or Direct Rollover Eligibility section under Rollovers or Direct Rollovers from Eligible Retirement Plans since the conversion eligibility requirements are no longer applicable after 12/31/2009.
- Removed information pertaining to the 12/31/2009 deadline under Tax-Free Distributions to Charities.
- Removed the 2009 RMDs Waived section since it is no longer applicable.

2012

IRS Form 5305-RA, Roth Individual Retirement Custodial Account and IRS Form 5305-R, Roth Individual Retirement Trust Account:

- Article IX, 9.13 - Spouse Beneficiary. Updated this section to include information regarding the default election for a spouse beneficiary.

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2012 and 2013 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.

2013

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2014 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.

2014

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the following sentence to the Beneficiary Designation section under Roth IRA Restrictions and Approval: If there is no beneficiary designation on file at the time of your death, or if none of the beneficiaries on file are alive at the time of your death, your Roth IRA assets will be paid to your estate.
- Added the 2015 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.
- Updated the Roth IRA-to-Roth IRA Rollovers section to provide that a Roth IRA owner is limited to one rollover for all of his/her IRAs per 1-year (12-month) period (that is, only one nontaxable IRA-to-IRA rollover per taxpayer in a year – not one rollover for each IRA per year).
- Added the MyRA-to-Roth IRA Rollovers and Transfers section.

2015

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2016 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.

2016

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2017 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.
- The Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes (PATH) Act of 2015 made permanent the Qualified Charitable Distribution rule allowing a Roth IRA owner or beneficiary age 70½ or older to have up to $100,000 per year distributed directly to a charitable organization. Under the Roth IRA Distributions section, 7. Tax-Free Distributions to Charities was retitled 5. Qualified Charitable Distributions. The corresponding text was updated.

2017

The IRS updated Forms 5305-R, Roth Individual Retirement Trust Account and 5305-RA, Roth Individual Retirement Custodial Account as follows:

- Article I. Updated contribution limits to 2017 amounts.
- Article II. Updated the modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) limits for being able to make Roth IRA contributions
- Article II. Removed language that limited Roth IRA conversion contributions.
- Article IX. Added statement that the IRS has reviewed and approved Articles I through VIII.
- General Instructions. Updated to reflect the changes above, remove the identifying number instruction, and list IRS Pub. 590-A and Pub. 590-B as additional sources of information.

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2018 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.
- Added statements that the IRS has reviewed and approved Articles I through VIII but not Article IX of the 5305-R or 5305-RA, as appropriate.
- Updated the Disaster Tax Relief section to summarize the requirements of the Disaster Tax Relief and Airport and Airway Extension Act of 2017.

2018 (January; Tax Cuts and Jobs Act)

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Made several changes under the Movement of Assets Between Traditional and Roth IRAs section:
 - Amended the Traditional IRA and Roth IRA Recharacterizations subsection to remove reference to cancelling a conversion from a traditional IRA to a Roth IRA through recharacterization;
 - Removed the reference regarding rollovers and direct rollovers from eligible retirement plans to Roth IRAs, and recharacterization of the same; and
 - Removed the Traditional IRA to Roth IRA Reconversions subsection.
- Added language to the Indirect Rollover and Withholding subsection within the Movement of Other Assets to Roth IRAs section to address the extended deadline to roll over plan loan offset amounts.
- Amended the Compensation for Eligibility subsection, under the Roth IRA Eligibility and Contributions section, to remove reference to including taxable alimony, or separate maintenance payments received under a divorce decree or other separate agreement, in compensation.
- Amended the Contribution Deadline subsection, under the Roth IRA Eligibility and Contributions section, so that it now references service in a hazardous duty area as an example of when the contribution deadline may be extended.

2018 (October; 2019 COLA updates)

Roth IRA Disclosure Statement

- Added the 2019 annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) limits.
- Amended the Waiver of the 60-Day Period subsection under the Moving Assets To and From Roth IRAs section by adding language explaining the self-certification procedure to claim eligibility for waiving the 60-day rollover period
- Made several changes under the Movement of Other Assets to Roth IRAs section:
 - Amended the Indirect Rollover and Withholding subsection to address the return of an improper tax levy; and
 - Removed the Qualified Settlement Income and the Rollovers Due to Airline Carrier Bankruptcy subsections as they are no longer relevant.
- Amended the Disaster Tax Relief section to add reference to IRS Publication 976, Disaster Relief, and make other minor clarifications.
