Five Questions to Answer Before Using an Individual Registered Agent

1. Does your company do business in multiple states? Or, did you incorporate or form in a state other than where you do business?

2. Do you set your own business hours or work from multiple locations?

3. Will your address ever change?

4. Do you want to keep your address private?

5. Do you see clients or customers at your home or business address?