Know Before You Lend

Sound lending begins by making sure you know as much as possible about potential debtors. One of the most valuable assets you can possess is access to reliable and trusted information. To mitigate risk, it’s essential to perform due diligence about potential customers before lending or entering into a contract – and staying updated throughout the life of a loan.

Lien Solutions provides complete nationwide searching services for loan- and lease-related documentation. Powered by our web-based iLien service, you can search online for the documents you need, or you can order documents and certified searches through our manual offerings. We’re able to connect you to corporate and Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) public records from every state. We support both one-time and recurring search, and enable you to create and manage search packages, as well as perform multijurisdictional searches.

We can help you conduct a full range of search types:

- Corporate charter
- Bankruptcy records
- Federal and state tax liens
- Judgment liens
- Litigation records
- Real property
- UCC liens
- Flood
- Other public records

Simplify Complexity

The ability to conduct fast, accurate public record searches and document retrieval has never been more essential to the due diligence process. But that can be a complex and time-consuming task, especially when multiple jurisdictions are involved. That’s where Lien Solutions’ broad reach and deep jurisdictional expertise becomes invaluable. With our nationwide database and network of more than 40 offices and 4,000 correspondents across the country, we have access to the most current data. And, we’re able to execute quickly on even the most extensive, multijurisdictional searches.
