The image displays three sequential screenshots of the 'Consumer Privacy Jurisdictional Compare Smart Chart' tool. The first screenshot shows the '1 Select Topics' step with a list of topics such as 'Businesses, agencies and data controllers subject to consumer privacy requirements' and 'Definition for "personal information"'. A purple arrow points to this step with the text '1) Choose Topics and Subtopics'. The second screenshot shows the '2 Select Jurisdictions' step with a grid of checkboxes for various US states and the Federal level. A purple arrow points to this step with the text '2) Choose Jurisdictions'. The third screenshot shows the '3 Your Results' step, displaying a table with columns for 'Jurisdiction', 'Summary', and 'Citation'. It lists definitions for 'personal information' for Connecticut, Michigan, and New York. A purple arrow points to this step with the text '3) View legal summaries with links to underlying laws and regulations'.
