CCH Central Suite Maitland

Maitland Ltd, a single partner practice based in East Sussex, is committed to providing the firm's clients with a reliable, professional and friendly service at a realistic price. Their emphasis on service quality - combined with their use of the CCH Central Suite - has helped the firm grow spectacularly in the last few years as partner, Andy Maitland, explains.

"We use CCH Personal Tax and CCH Partnership Tax, CCH Corporation Tax, CCH Practice Management and CCH Accounts Production and CCH Portal, all of which run under CCH Central. We're planning to implement CCH Document Management later this year.

I am very happy with all the CCH Central software that we use and with the excellent support that Wolters Kluwer delivers. Both have helped our business develop and grow by utilising the latest systems and technology available.

Whenever any of us needs assistance, Wolters Kluwer are on hand to resolve the query often with immediate effect! I never cease to be amazed at what Tia, our account manager at Wolters Kluwer, can do for us.

Wolters Kluwer makes the complex world of technology straightforward. This frees up time and enables our business to focus on fee-earning opportunities.

The help, support, training and guidance we have been given has been invaluable. Since implementing CCH Central and CCH Practice Management we have grown annual recurring fee income by over 125%. I would certainly recommend the Wolters Kluwer CCH Central software to other accountancy practices like ours - indeed I have already done so!"
